

August 20, 1939
1029 Rice St
Baltimore Md

Deare [sic] Mr. Governor Price

Just a few line to let you heare [sic] from me I am well and hop you are the same for Deare [sic] Governor I ask you heare [sic] some time ago about my Deare [sic] blind couse [sic] Jim Strother his no 33927 of state farm about a pardon and I haven [sic] heare [sic] from you for Deare [sic] Governor I am now beging [sic] you for his pardon please my Deare [sic] Governor give my Dear blind couse [sic] a pardon just for my sake and his for I can take care of him I have a home up heare [sic] in Baltimore for him for I need him up here with me for he is the older one on my farther side that is living and he can tell me a lot in life yet that I dont kown [sic] and I would very much in [?] to have him with me. for you are the onery [sic] one that can let me have him for Deare [sic] Governor you can for give him for what he don plesse Deare [sic] Governor have mercie on him for he is blind and cant see for Deare [sic] Governor I am asking you for his pardon and you and god abover [sic] is the onery [sic] one that can give it to him with your will and Deare [sic] Governor please have mercie [sic] on him Plese [sic] and kindly let him come up heare [sic] with me and I will take good care of him and if there is anny [sic] kind of paper to sine [sic] I will be more than glad to do so from his couse [sic] William Taylor

[page break]

[page break]

I remane [sic] your truly