Dear Jennie.

I wrote you to-day but I am down town here & it is raining like the Devil. and it is so damn gloomy. The nights are always gloomy for me any way. I can make out very well during the day. But when night comes. I feel like some one crazy. I have been so used to seeing you. and I said to myself to-day that I was going to stay in tonight. But when it came on I began feeling blue. so I came down here. But I am just as bad.

I will ¹¹ only lay in the bed and think of every thing in the world. But it is raining as I have said before so I guess there is only one thing left for me to do & that is go on home & worry my self to sleep. God only know what a misery life is to me. I keep it to my self & try to keep smiling but no one know what is behind my smile. You will say this is all shit. but it is not. If I could only turn back a year and be happy as I is every thing. And it is really so. If we could only get ourselves to - gether & be the friends we were in the beginning it would be some happy days to look forward to. But it seems to go backward instead of forward for me. It looks as though you loose interest in me. as your letter was so plain. and when I saw it was from you my heart beat to find out what was in it. and you only said a little. Nothing like you use to write. My God. I would

I will have ⁴ to worry it out.
Well Jonnie I will say Good by for this time. Trusting to God I will see & be with you soon. I am almost on the verge of giving up my position & going or coming up there & see if I can get work. I wish I could only make up my mind.
Well I hope you get a good night rest & are not feeling like I am. For I feel I wish I could close my eyes when I get home. And never open them again. So long for me. It every person of my type go through with worry as I do I feel so sorry with them.

Well this is hoping to see you in the near future.
