

Absolutely Fireproof.

Hotel Fairfax,

European.

Norfolk, Virginia,
Thursday Night.

J. Frank Bell, Manager.

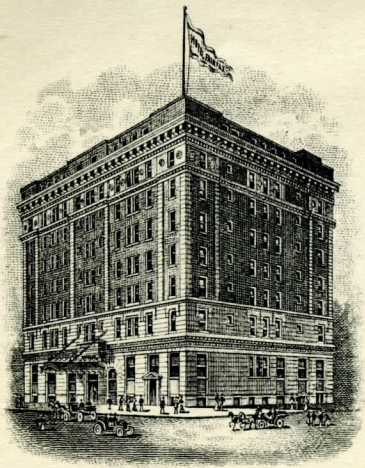

Dear friend Jonnie.

Received your letter to-night at least it came on the evening mail. Was real glad to hear from you.

Jonnie you say you wished you had stayed on the Law.

Bldy. Well I thought you would be dissatisfied but I thought if I told you. You would have said. I were trying to keep you from going. I really did hate to see you go. But I thought it best to say nothing in regards to it. As I may have told you wrong. Jonnie I will come Absolutely Fireproof.

Hotel Fairfax,

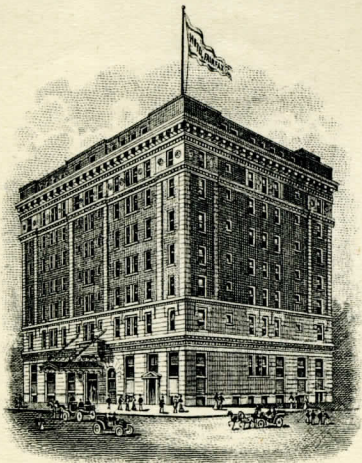

European.

Norfolk, Virginia,

J. Frank Bell, Manager.

v

up as I told you in my letter yesterday. And my Pass is on the C + D, as you remember. So meet me at the C + D station as I would not know any other place to see or find you. And it would be more convenient as then I would not miss seeing you. You can stand at the Gate. And I will be sure of seeing you then. Now dont fool me. And I will sure come unless I hear further from you that you will come back before. And then ^I it would not care to come. So unless I Absolutely Fireproof.

Hotel Fairfax,

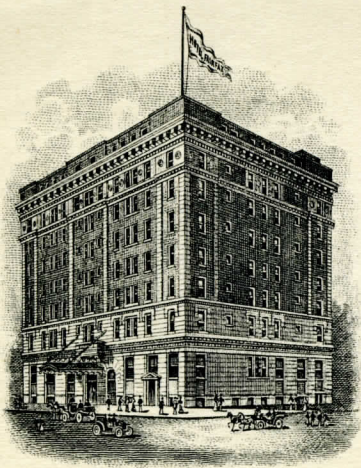

European.

Norfolk, Virginia,

3

J. Frank Bell, Manager.

hear from you stating that you will not wait. I will be there at 6.50 p.m. I believe that is the time the train is due now don't foot me and I won't foot you. As it seems a century already since I saw you. It rained all evening here. But has cleared away now. It begins raining about 4:30 - or 5 + rains every evening. April shower I suppose. It sure was gloomy last night as it rained awful. and I felt so despondent. I thought I would Absolutely Fireproof.

Hotel Fairfax, European.
Norfolk, Virginia.

J. Frank Bell, Manager.

go crazy.

H

Well I will say Good bye. Hoping to see you at the station Saturday evening.

I am.

Devotely Yours.

R.

P.S.

I guess they think you are getting rose mail at the Eagles. + all in the same Hand writing. Excuse all mistakes + take on them for X