Hon. Mr. B. Matthews, Secy
Va. Board of Law Examiners Richmond, Va.

Dear Sir:

I am herewith mailing my application for re-examination. It is true that I am a bit late, however this is accounted for by two reasons: viz. illness of my wife. I did not know whether her condition would permit me to leave. Secondly, I was uncertain as to whether she would have to go to the hospital - therefore I thought it advisable to hold all funds in hand.

However at this writing there is a decided improvement. I therefore beg your sympathy and indulgence and permit me to take the examination.

Thanking you in advance, I am Yours very truly,
Geo. Jones

P.S. You will kindly observe that my application is dated May 26, 1936 that is the date which I intended mailing same, but on second thought with held it for the reasons afore-mentioned
