CHAPTER 124.—An act concerning the securities of Jerman Baker, late Treasurer.

(Passed February 19th, 1830.)

Preamble.

Whereas, it is represented to the Legislature by the administrators, who are also securities of Jerman Baker, late Treasurer, that besides the proceeds of the sales of the said Baker's estate, which have not all been collected, there are certain suits depending in the court of appeals, and superior court for the county of Cumberland, by which a considerable sum will probably be recovered in the course of the present year, and when so recovered, will be applicable to the discharge of the judgments obtained against the said Baker and his securities, by the Commonwealth: And whereas it is right and proper that the said Baker's estate shall first be subjected to the payment of the Commonwealth's debt:

Stay of execution till fifteenth of December, 1831.

1. Be it therefore enacted, That no execution shall issue upon any judgment already obtained, or which may hereafter be obtained against the securities of the said Baker, as former Treasurer of this Commonwealth, until the fifteenth day of December, 1831, unless, in the opinion of the Attorney General and the Treasurer, the interest of the Commonwealth shall require that one shall be so construed as to impair in any manner the obligation of the said securities of the late Jerman Baker, as Treasurer, but they shall remain bound to all intents and purposes, as if this act had never passed; and if any part of the proceeds of the sales aforesaid shall be lost by insolvency, or from any cause, not actually paid into the Treasury, the Commonwealth shall not be chargeable therewith, nor the representatives of said Baker and his securities, entitled to a credit therefor.

Commencement.

2. This act shall commence and be in force from its passage.

CHAPTER 125.—An act releasing the sureties of Matthew H. Rice from the operation of certain covenants and conditions.

(Passed February 20th, 1830.)

Sureties released from such acts as prevent their seeking relief in equity.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That the sureties of Matthew H. Rice, late agent of the Commonwealth to make sale of articles manufactured at the Penitentiary, their heirs, executors and administrators, shall be, and they are hereby released and discharged from the operation of so much of the act passed the fourteenth day of January, eighteen hundred and twenty four, entitled, "an act concerning certain sureties of Matthew H. Rice;" and of the act passed the sixteenth day of the same month, entitled, "an act concerning the sureties of Matthew H. Rice;" and of the releases and agreements executed by them in conformity with the provisions of the said acts, as prohibits the said
